LOCAL KNIGHTS WILL TRY FOR FIRST PRIZE

Bridgeport to Send Big Delegation to Columbus Day Parade.

FULLY 1,000 FROM HERE

Program to be Observed in New Haven Tuesday Oct. 12, in Honor of Discoverer of America.

Members of the Knights of Columbus and Daughters of Isabella to the number of over 1,000 will leave this city for New Haven next Tuesday, to take part in the state celebration of Discovery Day, under the auspices of the state council of the order. The knights will meet at the chapter house, 871 Main street, and march to the railroad station and board a special train leaving at 9:30.

Lieutenant John J. Scanlon is chief of staff and he will announce the appointment of his aides to-morrow. The Bridgeport delegation to try for first prize for the city with the largest number of men in the parade making the best appearance. Members will wear black Derby hats, dark clothes, black shoes, white bow neckties, will wear white carnation in their coat lapels and will carry canes, which will be distributed at the chapter house, with an American flag attached. The full Wheeler & Wilson band will be the escort.

In a general circular, Grand Marshal Timothy F. Callahan of New Haven, says: "October 12 is now a legal holiday in Connecticut and the day will be known as Discovery Day in honor of the discovery of America. Knights of Columbus are proud of this that this state has joined with many others in setting apart one day each year to commemorate the work accomplished by the patron of our order. Members of councils of District No. 1 are determined to make this celebration of 'Columbus Day,' a memorable one in the annals of Columbianism and are pleased with the activity shown by many councils throughout the state, by the elaborate preparations that are being made to have every council represented."

"The Knights of Columbus recognize the great work that is being done by the Daughters of Isabella, and are pleased that they are coming in such numbers from all parts of the state to take part in this celebration. With their co-operation we can be more successful in our efforts."

"The general committee of District No. 1 appreciate the sacrifice made by councils in Bridgeport, Stamford and Hartford, where arrangements were being made for local celebrations on October 12. It is very evident that there is a spirit of unity prevalent in Connecticut, where, for the good of the order, we must at times eliminate city and district lines."

The programme of the celebration is as follows:
Monday, October 11—Exemplification of the fourth degree at 5 o'clock in Music hall, Court street, under the direction of Bernard E. Lynch, master of the fourth degree of Connecticut. The degree will be conferred by the Connecticut degree team on about 200 candidates, after which there will be a short street parade, followed by a banquet, at which most of the supreme officers will be in attendance.
October 12—Discovery Day, grand street parade of Knights of Columbus from Temple street, on the Green. At 3 o'clock there will be a Gaelic football game between teams representing County Kerry and County Tipperary, both teams composed of members of the Irish-American Athletic association of New York city. The teams have played two games, each winning one, and this game will decide the championship of New York state. It will be played at the Savin Rock baseball grounds.

At 5 o'clock the Knights of Columbus ball will open in the Second Regiment armory. The decorations will be lavish and over 1,000 electric lights will be used in an artistic color scheme. An orchestra of 25 pieces will play concert music.

The following statement is made for the information of visitors and should be clipped and retained by Bridgeport: M. F. Brennan of the transportation committee, 9 Shelter street, will arrange for carriages if notified in advance; K. of C. chapter house, 139 Orange street, near the corner of Chapel street; K. of C. national headquarters, 350 Chapel street, opposite Sloyanus T. A. & B. rooms, 822 Chapel street, 223 Orange street; Elks club, 216 Crown street; Eagles' hall, corner of Orange and Chapel streets; St. Sloyanus T. A. & B. rooms, 822 Chapel street, which will be in charge of ladies of St. Agnes T. A. & B. society. Isabella members reception, in A. O. U. W. hall, 139 Orange street.

Mr. F. G. Fritz, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Ointment, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble. It is pleasant and effective, and cures habitual constipation. F. B. Brill, local agent."

TO CLOSE AT 10 O'CLOCK.

Torrington, Oct. 6.—At the meeting of the borough board last night a delegation of citizens presented arguments for the closing of the saloons at 10 p. m. The saloon men presented a petition two weeks ago that they be allowed to keep open until 11 p. m. The motion was carried, 4 to 2. Messrs. Hall, Hotchkiss, Blakelee and Falk voted in favor and Messrs. Baeder and Fritz against it. This settles the question and the saloons will close at 10 p. m. in the future.

KING'S DAUGHTERS

Annual State Convention to Be Held Next Week in New Haven.

The annual convention of the Connecticut branch of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons is to meet on October 13 and 14, in the Plymouth Congregational church at Chapel street and Sherman avenue, in New Haven. The opening meeting will be held at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Each circle in the State sends one delegate for each ten members, and its leader. The Central council of the order will send three representatives who will be the guests of the convention. These will be Miss George Libby, Miss Clara Morhouse and Mrs. A. H. Evans of Hartford. The State secretary of Pennsylvania, Miss Alice B. Garnett, will also be a guest. The meeting, in addition to other interesting features, will consider the amendments to the constitution proposed at the last convention.

A very large attendance is expected as the various county secretaries have been hard at work urging the members to attend and insisting that a greater interest would be to the benefit of the State order.

COE-STANLEY COMPANY

WILL HIRE 60 HANDS

The new Coe-Stanley Mfg. Co. which is to begin business in this city with some 60 hands, is looking for a factory building. The concern will make brass goods of all descriptions. B. L. Coe, president, was treasurer of the Bridgeport Brass Co. for a number of years. He is a director of the Manufacturers' National Bank of Waterbury. Vice President W. S. Stapley of Foley's Honey and Tar, has been connected with the Bridgeport Brass Co. for nine years and is the inventor of a number of useful articles including Stapley pumps, grease guns, and gas jets.

The treasurer is Benjamin S. Coe, son of the president. The secretary, Elihu B. Shoemaker, has been connected with the New York office of the Bridgeport Brass Co. He will have charge of the sales department of the new concern.

BOTH BOYS SAVED.

Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is so safe and certain in results. F. B. Brill, local agent. *135

NEW AERIAL TRUCK PLEAS.

MOONEY AND FIRE COMMISSIONERS

The new aerial truck purchased by the Fire Commission for No. 1 Truck Co. in North street, was placed in the commission yesterday. The truck has a 65 foot extension ladder and is built by the American-La France Fire Engine Co. along the same lines as the truck in use by Truck Company No. 2.

The truck was given an official test yesterday afternoon, under the direction of Lieut. John H. Kane of No. 2 company, who instructed Capt. George F. Beardsley and Lieut. Thomas Broderick in its use. The Fire Commissioners and Chief Mooney who witnessed the test were pleased with the new apparatus.

The Commissioners purchased a truck with an aerial lift because No. 1 company answers alarms from all boxes in the center of the city and covers the West End.

ECZEMA DEFIED SIX HOSPITALS

Doctors of Two Continents Could Make No Impression on Torturing Skin Disease—All Treatments Failed for Nineteen Years.

THEN CUTICURA CURED SWIFTLY AND EASILY

"I contracted my disease at school in London, England, when I was fourteen years old. I was now thirty-three. My father put me under the care of our family physician who diagnosed my disease as Eczema. But after several months' treatment without receiving any benefit, I was advised to go to a hospital. I attended the 'Hospital' in London. Then on two other occasions, without my getting any benefit, they treated me for eczema. My next attempt was trying different ointments from doctors and druggists. Then I tried patent medicines, including 'Hospital' and 'Cuticura'.

"I passed examinations for government situations but was finally rejected at the medical examinations. After three attempts to enlist in the British army I succeeded at last but was discharged on account of my eczema. The disease was confined to face, arms and legs, my face being actually raw at times. I came to America thirteen years ago, but my face became worse if possible. I had over a hundred times been advised to go to a hospital. I was sent to the 'Hospital' in Brooklyn. I was put under the care of Professor [name] who also added to the number of unsuccessful attempts. I returned home to England and tried the 'Hospital' in London, the 'Hospital' in London, also the world-famed London 'Hospital' but without getting cured. I came back to America five years ago. I had overlooked the Cuticura Remedies dozens of times, but three months ago I decided to give Cuticura a trial and I can safely say I am cured of one of the most torturing skin diseases a man ever had. Richard Curley, New Canaan, Conn., Jan. 10, 1909.

"My next time I was trying different ointments from doctors and druggists. Then I tried patent medicines, including 'Hospital' and 'Cuticura'.
